REFERENCES Re: NJAA 2348
1. [] has no information to confirm that the personalities in para 1 of Reference are engaged in recruiting and training persons in the Syrian Region for operations which will be carried out in Jordan. [] is usually has at least peripheral access to such activities has not reported on any operation in which referenced personalities are involved. 2. Whether or not there is any truth in referenced report, it is believed that the source was probably referring to Wahid al-HAY IS (not al-HAY which is a different name derived from the same root), who is a Palestinian leader from Gaza engaged in propaganda work. He accompanied Governor of Gaza, Ahmad Salim, on a trip to Jerusalem about April 1959. The owner of the defunct newspaper al-Naba, Wahid al-HAY al-HAY, is a Syrian, born in Damascus in 1908. [] is an acquaintance of Robertson. His wife and son, who attends RUS, accepted a dinner invitation at Robertson's about December 1958. Although possibly of Palestinian origin, he is not believed to have either the capability or the inclination for recruiting and training persons to work against Jordan. 3. [] has no traces on the other personalities mentioned in para 1 reference.
